Creative Writing : Poems, Tidbits, and Short Stories

Everything that is connected in any way with religious worship should be dignified, solemn, and impressive. The principal challenge facing the African philosopher today seems to lie in her or his ability to engage in an amazing, and admirable, balancing act, between deconstruction and affirmation, between African essentialism and globalising or universalising detachment, between metaphysics and epistemology, between philosophy and empirical enquiry - between philosophy and the world, and between Africa and the world.

QUADRIFOGLIO DEUX Vol.1

In conclusion, it could be argued that relegating social and natural processes outside the dwelling spaces of modernity-the two cornerstones for producing a home according to Ruskin's vision-are conditions that have been met only at an ideological representational-visual and discursive-perceptive level.
