However, it is evident from the book of Acts, the apostolic epistles, as well as from early Christian written sources, that the Apostles had been continuously looking for new assistants "pastors and teachers" training them to be their successors and ordaining them to bishops, presbyters, and deacons. When they are lost or the dreams of them unrealized we are devastated, for the shadows, echoes and reflections we had supposed would finally make us feel good about ourselves have been exposed as frauds, and once again we are left to feel naked but without fig leaves to cover us.
